City Withdraws Suit Against Elem. District

The City of Daly City has withdrawn its suit against the Jefferson Elementary School District to oppose the location of a pedestrian overpass near Glenwood avenue over Lake Merced boulevard.

The city had requested the overpass be constructed north of the Central Fire Station for the safety of school children going and coming from Fernando Rivera School.

In a letter to the school board, the city stated that the board of trustees of the Jefferson School District must bear sole responsibility for any hazardous condition which may result from construction of the proposed pedestrian overpass.

Budget Approved
The board approved a 1962-63 budget of $4,201,795.

The firm of Strong Wishart and Holt was hired to conduct a management survey of the Jefferson Elementary School district. The firm will see if it can look into procedure and make recommendation for more efficiency. Cost of the survey is about $10,000. The survey team will take about 25 days in the district and take about six months to complete.

Completion Notice
Board members also voted to employ architect Angus McSweeney of San Francisco to design two classroom additions at the Garden Village School. Notice of completion was filed for sprinkler system and site improvements at Daniel Webster, Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Edison schools.

At Last! Sunshine

Some three weeks of unrelenting cold and fog was ended Monday as sunshine and warmer temperatures warmed the hearts of Daly City residents.

Low temperatures of around 52 degrees and overcast skies had convinced localites it was by far the coldest summer since 1901.

United States Weather Bureau spokesmen say the fog is caused by the high pressure air off shore being drawn inland by low pressure areas in the San Joaquin and Santa Clara valleys.

However, he said he had not kept track of the Daly City fog because the weather usually is sunny at the San Francisco Airport where the readings are made.

Msgr. Tozzi Wills Million Dollars To Rome College

The estate of Monsignor Egisto Tozzi, former pastor of All Souls Catholic Church in South San Francisco, was appraised at $1,123,139 in an inventory filed in San Mateo County Superior Court on Monday.

The bulk of the estate, according to the three executors, was left to the Monsignor Tozzi College in Rome, built in his honor in 1952. Tozzi died October 11, 1961, at the age of 75.

A joint statement, issued by executors Sylvester Andriano, Msgr. Harold Collins and Father A. R. Bandini, said that "Monsignor Tozzi left an estate of unusual proportions, to be devoted to educational purposes."

Monsignor Tozzi's assets were almost entirely in cash and stocks. The statement listed savings accounts in various branches of the Bank of America and $83,754 in stocks and bonds.

Tozzi, known as the "Friend of Pops," was acquainted with six Popes during his lifetime and had private audiences with four. He grew up in Rome as a young boy with Pope Pius XII.

Ousted Teacher Files Big Suit

Joseph Gennarella, a former teacher in South San Francisco, has sued his former bosses for $400,000 in damages.

Gennarella, a fourth grade teacher at Spruce school last year, had taught in the district a little less than a year, and his contract had not been renewed after he was criticized for spanking boys in his class, and for a list of other scholastic shortcomings.

Gennarella named as defendants Superintendent Charles H. Davis, Spruce principal Frank Cappa and three unidentified John Does.

The teacher had admitted he had used a foot-long masonite paddle to discipline pupils. Gennarella, 45, and a bachelor, lives in Concord and has been a teacher for ten years.

College Student Hurt In Crackup

ROOM ON STILTS—Neighbors of Frank Presto, 853 Templeton, complain this addition to his home is illegal and cuts off their view. According to Daly City building officials, the addition complies with all building regulations. Presto, vice-president of the United School, teletype training division, San Francisco, said he bought his home with the understanding he could build onto it.

Negro Broker Says Scattered Integration Better Than "Ghetto"

George Redus, Negro San Francisco broker, told the Times this week the alleged "blockbusting" scare last week in Westlake was about the first time local Negro views on integration were brought into the open and fully explained.

Redus was taken in hand by

San Francisco NAACP members last week after two houses side by side in the 1200 block on South Mayfair avenue, transferred from white to Negro residents through him, were offered for sale to anyone.

The NAACP, he said, threatened to picket his houses if any attempts were made to establish a Negro community on the block.

No Arbitrary Selling
Redus said it is his intention, in selling homes, to "keep Negro buyers from ganging up in blocks because it breeds a totally segregated community."

"Westlake," he said, "has been integrating smoothly, which is proof that it can operate smoothly."

The main point Redus wanted to make is that "it is wrong to think that because a Negro broker is selling a home, he will only sell to a Negro."

No "Blockbusting"
"The NAACP doesn't want pockets in the community. As long as Negroes are scattered throughout, there is no need for the general public to mind."

Redus said that the Westlake incident was a case in which Negroes stepped in and stopped any supposed threat of "block-

DC Barber Held On Dope Charge

A Daly City barber's 2 a.m. visit to his estranged wife's home last Friday ended up in the South San Francisco jail, where he was held for investigation of possession of narcotics and disturbing the peace.

South City officers booked LaVerne Tooke, 42 Tallwood drive, Daly City, after answering a call from his wife that he was in her home at 1005 Hillside boulevard in violation of a court restraining order.

According to officers Joe Simpson and Douglas McCool, they came to the door and were about to be admitted by Mrs. Tooke when the husband slammed the door in their face.

The officers re-entered the home and found Tooke had locked himself in the bathroom. He appeared moments later and officers searched him, finding what appeared to be a marijuana cigarette and several prescription-type pills.

Police reported that the man admitted using the narcotics following questioning.

Jeff High School Trustees Approve Record Budget

The Jefferson Union High School District made history again Monday night when the board of trustees approved a record-breaking $3,847,074 budget for the 1962-63 school year.

The new operating budget, retroactive to July 1, is a $379,247 increase over the 1961-62 budget of $3,467,827. Acting Superintendent Fred Goodell said that the increase complies with the 20 per cent expansion of the district.

The district anticipates that $1,800,000 of this budget will be met through the sale of bonds. Two weeks ago the board voted to ask the San Mateo County board of supervisors to borrow $700,000 to fulfill the obligations of the district from now until December 15. This money is being raised on short term tax anticipation notes and will be paid when the district receives its first installment of its $2,432,295 district tax fund in December.

In other actions, the board held a public hearing on the conveyance of property to the City of Pacifica for public road purposes.

The board also heard a report from Lou Martin, principal of the Jefferson district summer and adult school. Martin reported that this year's summer school, which will end Friday, had one of the highest attendance records in history.

He noted that the 1961 summer school had a drop-out of 39 per cent, while this year the figure plummeted to a mere 12 per cent drop-out — one of the best summer school attendance records in the state.

The 1962-63 adult school, which opens September 11, will offer 103 different courses, reported Martin. The program will have 82 instructors and is considered by Martin to be one of the most comprehensive adult schools in California.

"We have now reached an ultimate of expansion in our program and the only way for us to enlarge is to add extra sections," Martin said. The Jefferson adult program has now surpassed the San Francisco adult school in course offerings and is considered equivalent to the vast Los Angeles program.

The trustees also approved the new course of study for the district, presented by Dr. John Ivan, director of curriculum. Ivan reported on new courses and textbooks, subjects no longer offered, and obsolete books.

The meeting was adjourned following a report on the district's insurance status by insurance advisor Pete Markovich.

Stork Arrives Ahead Of Schedule

The stork beat everyone to the punch at 6:25 a. m. August 8 at the Wiffard Hebecker residence, 151 Ashlund avenue.

Hebecker, 26, called Daly City police requesting assistance for his wife who was expecting a child. Officer Alvin Nicolini arrived swiftly, but Hebecker's wife, Waltrand, 22, had already given birth to a baby girl.

The mother and child were taken to Presbyterian Hospital by Mercy Ambulance.

PACIFICANS STOP GAS STATION PLANS

Pacifica citizens won their battle, August 1, to keep the Union Oil Company from building a gas station near the intersection of Adobe drive and Linda Mar boulevard in Linda Mar.

City councilmen voted, 3-2, to deny architectural plans for the gas station and initiated proceedings to rezone the property for apartment and professional buildings.

The public furor over what's going to happen at this intersection has continued into several public hearings.

Opposed to commercial development was the Historical Society, members of which are proprietors of the Sanchez Adobe Historical Monument, located near the intersection.

Years ago, the area at the intersection was zoned for commercial use. Developers had assumed the site would be used only for a medical center, according to Mel Davis, planning commission secretary.

Two years ago, Davis said, plans were filed for a medical center, and at the same time plans were filed for a gas station next door. The medical center was never built.

Union Oil Company filed to build on the former medical center site. At that time, Davis added, the Pacifica Planning Commission members felt they were powerless to interfere under terms of the zoning ordinance.

Proprietors of the Adobe Sanchez filed an appeal with the city council.

Sanchez Adobe was originally a place for the watering of horses for Mission Dolores in San Francisco. Around 1856 the place became a hacienda for the Sanchez family.

Family Center Plans Launched

Plans have been announced for the $500,000 Highlands Family Center, to be located at 410 Camaritas avenue in South San Francisco.

Designed to serve as a recreation center for the entire family, facilities will include a major sized enclosed swimming pool, a bowling alley, a gymnasium and giant social hall which will seat 400 persons.

Sponsors are the Highlands Baptist church. According to the Rev. Brinkley, Highland pastor, "this will be in answer to President Kennedy's recent plea for better physical fitness."

The recreational facilities will be available to any community group needing a 400 capacity seating hall.

In explaining the membership program, the Rev. Mr. Brinkley said there will be an initial initiation fee, plus a small monthly cost which will include every member of the family. A half-price program is available for single persons.

Besides the recreational facilities, members of the church are planning a 200-seat sanctuary and a parsonage at the center. Memberships in the center will go toward the continued operation of the major family plant.

The Rev. Mr. Brinkley said "the Family Center will solve a lot of our youth recreation problems."

The program is proposed to provide "good, clean, healthy recreation, not just for the children, but for mom and dad, too," he said.

Sailors Arrested For Auto Theft

Jerald Lee Benson, 20; Marco Paul Diano, Jr., 19, and Steve Lawson VanWinkle, 19, all of the USS Cavalier, were apprehended at Geneva and Bayshore highway after the car was reported stolen from Crocker and Mission streets.

400 Manual Parking Meters For Daly City

By JACK WOOD
Rows of little grey monsters with protruding octopus-type heads grow like bean stalks along Daly City thoroughfares. They eat money. If you don't put money in them they stick out their red tongues at you. They are called parking meters.

I try to ignore parking meters as much as possible. I avoid them. I make a game of not putting money in them and seeing if I can get away with it. I always lose.

The ultimate indignity in parking meters is that proposed in San Francisco—meters that growl when they are out of money. So, if you punch them, when your nickel sticks, they might growl back at you.

The Wind Up
Finance director Joe Arch of Daly City has a program going to get better parking meters in town, but so far he is unable to obtain the type that says "thank you" when you put your penny in.

With $6,000 to start with, Arch's men will eventually replace 400 of Daly City's automatic meters with "manual" meters—those that you wind up by hand.

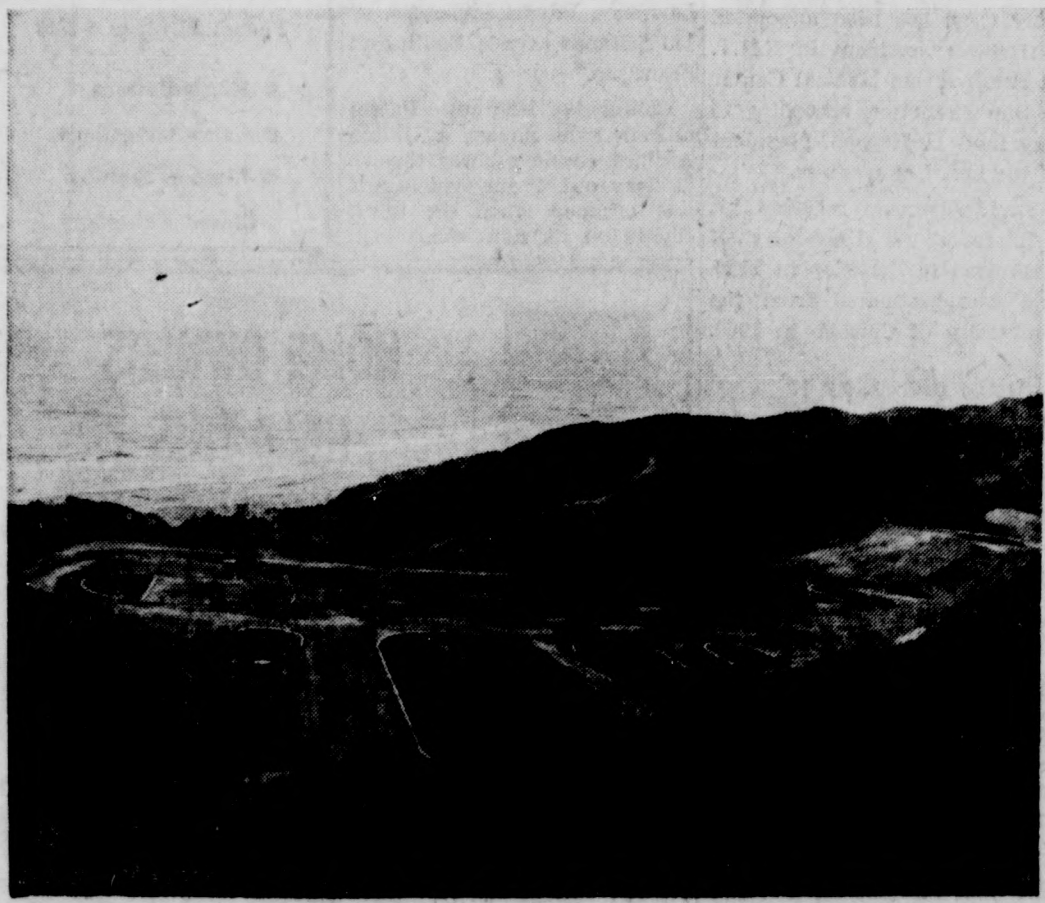

I think there is a certain satisfaction to winding up your own red flag, instead of seeing it pop up by a spring.

The manual meters will even save the taxpayers money. Cold, foggy days, such as experienced this summer, tend to make the automatic meter into a so-called "cheater meter" and clip the customer out of minutes due to a sloppy operation.

Fog Proof
The only alternative to cheater-meters, as I see it, would be heaters for meters—which might be given the name "cheater-meter-heaters."

During the last fiscal year, the parking populace was "took" about even coming and going. Daly City meter men collected $20,358 and Daly City policemen tagged the populace for $21,716 in parking meter fines.

Arch said the sizeable portion from traffic fines was attributed to the increase of meter fines from $1 to $2. However, we hail the efforts of the finance department to help out the populace by installing more reliable meters—the fog-proof kind — one that you can take out your dislike on by giving it a vicious twist after inserting your money.

NEARING COMPLETION — A large parking lot is taking shape at Thornton Beach fronting Daly City. The project, under construction by the State Highway Department, includes an improved access road linked to Skyline boulevard. City officials expect the project to be completed within the next few days.

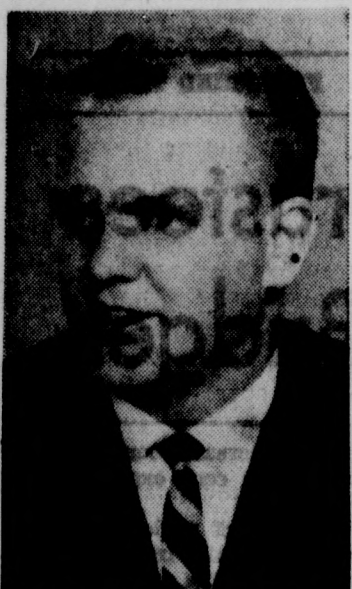

IMPROVED ACCESS ROAD to Thornton Beach, now under construction by the State Highway Department. Project, originally to be completed by Sept. 1, is far ahead of schedule. The road leads to a spacious parking lot near the waterfront.

Officers "Rough It" With Drunk Arrest

A Menlo avenue resident who "forcibly resisted incarceration" gave Daly City police a rough time of it early Monday morning.

Officers Marigo Benedetti and Thomas Donahue were called to 64 Menlo avenue and attempted to arrest Thomas Willingham, 41, on a charge of disturbing the peace and being drunk in a public place. Willingham was reported standing in his front yard with a flashlight and dog leash in hand.

At this point, police said, Willingham made a dash for his house. Officers in pursuit detained the man, but were rewarded with much swinging, kicking, struggling and a close brush with a flashlight.

Onto the original two counts, Willingham was also charged with resisting and obstructing arrest. He posted bail and will appear August 14 in municipal court in South San Francisco.

Officials ruled the death as accidental.

County Jails Hold More Yegs Than City Jails

California's county and city jails and camps housed 25,170 adults and juveniles on Sept. 28, 1961, according to a report submitted to Attorney General Stanley Mosk by the Bureau of Criminal Statistics.

Of this number, 17,633 were under sentence and 7,537 were "unsentenced," the latter being under arrest and detained pending court trial.

The date of Thursday, Sept. 28, was selected for the census date to avoid fluctuations commonly experienced on weekends and holidays.

Those sentenced in jails totaled 8,510, while the number in camps totaled 9,123. The "unsentenced" in jails was 7,385, with 152 in camps. County jails house a large majority with 20,284 prisoners as compared with 4,886 in city jails. Many cities having no detention facilities of their own use the county jail for those requiring custody.

Judge Branson Issues Message Of Appreciation

Superior Judge J. A. Branson this week issued a message of thanks and appreciation to the thousands of San Mateo County citizens who responded to the 1962 Crippled Children and Adults Society appeal for funds by purchasing Easter Seals sent to them through the mail.

However, Branson emphasized, "we are still in critical need of additional funds to carry on the work of the Rehabilitation Center at 1764 Marco Polo Way, Burlingame, and any resident who has not sent a contribution is invited and urged to do so at this time."

Branson said returns this year totaling $38,372.19 were the highest in the history of the drive with 16,873 families responding to the appeal.

"We actually need $50,000 to provide the therapy and facilities at the Rehabilitation Center," Branson declared, "and I am still hopeful that generous citizens will make up this difference."

Checks should be made payable to "Crippled Children's Society" and mailed to 1764 Marco Polo Way, Burlingame, or simply in care of your local postmaster.

Officials of the Easter Seal Society pointed out that there are more than 14,000 handicapped citizens in San Mateo County and that the Rehabilitation and Research Center is open to everyone regardless of race, creed or color.

The center provides physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy through trained therapists and technicians and the use of modern equipment.

"You can visit the center and see personally what your contribution is accomplishing in helping handicapped people," Branson concluded, "and the money contributed stays right here in San Mateo County."

Lindsay Named On Rape Count

Norman Lindsay, 20-year-old Alcatraz convict on trial in Redwood City on charges of raping an 18-year-old Woodside girl, was named by Daly City police on two local rape counts.

But local police will not prosecute because the identification of Lindsay by the victim is not positive, police said.

Lindsay's arrest cleared two Daly City rape cases. The first involved a Los Banos avenue housewife, who was hauled into a parking lot and raped March 2, 1961, as she was walking home from a movie.

The second occurred Oct. 16, 1961, in the Crocker Hills. The suspect tied up the boyfriend of a teenage girl at gunpoint, led the girl away and raped her. The girl, however, could make no positive identification. Lindsay was picked up later with a map of the Crocker Hills in his pocket.

Lindsay, who is serving two consecutive 15-year terms in federal prison for bank robbery, is charged with 22 counts of felonies, including kidnapping, rape, robbery, burglary, assault and sex perversion. He could be sentenced to the gas chamber if convicted on one of the kidnapping charges.

OLD GLORY POST AND AUXILIARY AT CONVENTION

By LOUISE CROWLEY

Many members of the Daly City VFW post auxiliary attended the 30th annual department convention at Bakersfield, June 24 to 28.

And from all reports, aside from the many business activities which kept them interested, they had time for fun, social functions, receptions and came back with good reports. Ann Walters, secretary of the auxiliary, was installed as hospital chairman for the ensuing year.

Sunday, July 29, the 12th District department of California held its regular business meeting at the Santa Clara County fair building. Several members of our auxiliary were in attendance. Camille Beckett, President Ruth Townsend, senior Vice President Ann Walters, Secretary Ethel De Witt, Louise J. Crowley, Bonnie Ellinwood, Ruth Bruzel, Marge Johnson, Emma Porter and Catherine Albertus were among those who registered.

The department secretary told in detail of the outstanding work being accomplished by the many auxiliaries in the department. The department president, Irene Hoffman, made her official visit at this time with seven department officers. She gave a very impressive talk on many important subjects which was enjoyed by all members.

The local auxiliary was presented with seven citations covering many worthwhile activities which should make members proud of what has been accomplished.

One citation was for 100 per cent membership, one for the sale of copies and a special citation was given to member Emma Porter for the most poppies sold.

Comrades who attended included Leroy Albert, Alex Albertus, Clarence Johnson, Ray Bruzel and post commander Aaron Townsend.

Three Pacificans Join Air Force

Doug Miller, Ralph Todd and Rudy Cormanes, 1962 graduates of Terra Nova High, donned "Air Force Blue" this week at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

The boys were enlisted July 31 by Tech. Sgt. Bernie Herbert, 6268 Mission street, Daly City.

They are undergoing basic training in a "buddy flight" which is Air Force policy for friends enlisted together. Following this initial training of five to eight weeks, the boys will receive school or on-the-job training assignments based on their individual qualifications, desires and requirements of the Air Force.

Miller signed up for the mechanical field, Todd picked electronics, and Cormanes selected the general field.

Airlines Employee Killed In Crash

A South San Francisco man was fatally injured Thursday, August 2, at 11:30 p. m. when he lost control of his pickup truck traveling south in a light drizzle on El Camino and struck a divider 165 feet north of Collins street in Broadmoor.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital was Lawrence Edwin Shuler, 40, of 133 Belmont avenue, South San Francisco.

California Highway Patrol officers said Shuler, a United Airlines employee, was thrown halfway out of his vehicle and was crushed when the truck flipped on its right side.

Daly City police officer Richard Phillips said the accident occurred when Marshall H. Fisher, 60, of 425 Moore road, Woodside, made a "U" turn in heavy fog and drove south in the northbound lane into the path of 18-year-old Eugene Borrisson, 3811 Madea Way, San Bruno.

Fisher told officers he "got confused" and made a wrong U turn. Borrisson was given emergency treatment at Junipero Serra Hospital and transferred to French Hospital in San Francisco.

One car — a 1956 Oldsmobile — was located at West Molke street.

Officers reported the culprit broke glass to enter through the front door, took two keys and removed the cars. The Oldsmobile ran out of gas and the burglar drove away with a second auto.

New Offers

Redus said that since the Westlake incident, he had received offers to sell homes in the Vallejo and in the Skyline areas.

These offers, he said, undoubtedly came from persons who feel that scattered integration is better than pocket segregation.

"It'll be good for the entire community," he said.

Here and There—

By Aitch Peebe

A Lift Or A Lollipop

No doubt about it. There is no official act to compare with tax reduction in winning friends and influencing people—corporate or individual. Nor, in all probability was there ever a time when on the basis of hardship and the needs of the economy, a tax reduction would provide a greater immediate sense of relief and stimulation.

But, there is another side to the story that we can ignore only at our peril. In this country, which has long cherished a sense of fiscal responsibility, tax cuts have been made at those times when there was reason to believe the nation could meet its obligations on less income.

A tax cut today, in the face of continuing reckless extravagance that has put the budget billions out of balance, that has required in recent weeks another lift in our debt ceiling to the level of 308 billion dollars and brought out actual national commitments to the incomprehensible figure of over a trillion dollars, can only be a reckless, irresponsible gesture of political desperation.

Tax reform, to be sure, is urgently needed. Business should—as a matter of right, not privilege or special dispensation—deduct full and realistic depreciation on plant and equipment. Tax withholding should be outlawed for the swindle it has proved to be. And a start should be made in progressive tax reduction for all—individuals and corporations.

But enduring tax reform can only follow a reform in tax spending. Enacted in good faith it would follow, not precede, the rejection of welfareism and the pork barrel as instruments of public policy, and of foreign aid as rental on peace.

If the Administration honestly believes that tax reduction now is in the nation's interest, it must just as firmly believe that economy in government is in the public interest. And there is still time for our leaders to demonstrate their good faith by checking their squanderlust by at least seven billion dollars now considered as the cost of tax concessions.

Without some token of the sort, we can expect nothing more wholesome than an election-year lollipop.

Yes -- It's Taxpayers' Money!

Writing in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, columnist Howard Preston makes one of the best suggestions that has come along in quite a while.

He simply suggests that, when we write or talk about government spending, we use the phrase "taxpayers' money" rather than "federal funds."

It is unfortunate, but true, that there is a need to emphasize this distinction. Numbers of people, seemingly, don't relate government money to the money that is taken from them through taxation. Consciously or not, they assume that government has some other and magical means of obtaining funds.

Government doesn't earn money, and it doesn't create wealth. It isn't supposed to. Government can spend only what it first seizes from the people—and this includes the as-yet-unborn taxpayers who will be paying the bills of the past for ages to come.

So—don't just think of federal funds. Think of taxpayers' money—your money.

A survey indicates that there are at least 22 present members of Blue Cross who are aged one hundred or older. The oldest of them all reached 105 early this year. The rolls also include a married couple of whom both are 102—and they have yet to make a claim for hospitalization.

From the Wall Street Journal: "People are no longer fooled by inflation. Instead of being exhilarated by its prospects, people are now frightened by them. It's nonsense to think that today the promise of more inflation would once again send the stock market swirling upwards or that it would make people act more confidently with their money, whether as individual spenders or as managers of the money of great enterprises."

U. S. News & World Report points out that there are 24 leading indicators which are watched closely by economists for signals of future trends in business in general. As of a recent date, 17 of these indicated declines; four indicated improvement, but to a less favorable extent than was the case a few months ago; only three indicated continuing improvement.

COUNTY DOINGS

by JACK WOOD

No cases of deformed babies, caused by use of the drug thalidomide, have been reported in San Mateo County, according to San Mateo County Health Director Dr. Harold D. Choche.

Dr. Choche noted that there were 72 California physicians who were given the drug for testing purposes. Of this number, 12 were in Northern California.

His investigation showed none of the 12 doctors using thalidomide were in San Mateo County.

The drug was recalled in March and was ordered either destroyed or returned to the manufacturer.

Damage takes place during the early stages of development. The deformity of limbs is characteristic of a malformation known as phocomelia.

Thalidomide, sold under the trade name of Contergan, was held responsible for the deformation of hundreds of infants in West Germany, where the drug has been marketed as freely as aspirin since 1959.

On a statewide basis, McKay McKinnon, Jr., San Francisco district director of the Food and Drug Administration has reported a double-check is in progress to make sure that none of the drug thalidomide is still in the hands of physicians who were investigating its safety last winter.

Helen B. Taussig, professor of pediatrics at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, said that if thalidomide had been developed in this country, it would easily have found wide distribution before its power to cause deformity had become apparent.

"The marketing techniques of the pharmaceutical industry," she said, "which can saturate the country with a new drug almost as soon as it leaves the laboratory, would have enabled thalidomide to produce thousands of deformed infants in the United States."

Dr. Taussig believes it is essential to improve both the techniques for testing and the legal controls over the release of new drugs.

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

Taylor Caldwell has ten books in print and another coming in September. Many of the books she writes become exceedingly popular, but soon wallow away to be revived for a short resurrection when a movie is made or a paper back hits the stands.

This does not distress Miss Caldwell or her readers. She admits that she writes to attract many readers and to tell the story that is pounding in her brain. When she has done this, she is ready to write another book. In an article appearing in Writer Magazine for January, 1961, she says that her fan mail and her royalty checks tell whether she has failed to produce a good book.

Her readers are intrigued by her lavender philosophy and her picture of troubles that plague most everyone during his lifetime. When finishing the book, the reader says "that's a good story" and passes on to new problems. And, Miss Caldwell is there with a new book to help him along his way.

Her success comes from her ability to see in everyday life or in history examples of her personal philosophy. She expressed it thusly: "... man is tragic, his life dark and full of trouble, his hopes pathetic, his destiny obscure. But above all he (the writer) must know that man has a destiny in time and eternity. ... There is purpose in the universe and the writer must hint strongly of that purpose if he is to reach his fellow man with consolation and hope."

It is the oozing of consolation and hope that ruins Miss Caldwell's stories for some of us. We are sorry that she uses words of wisdom and biblical quotations to gloss over her story, her lack of choice of words, and her failure to picture the tragedies of life that she surely must see. For this reason, some of us find her work shallow and believe this is why it is soon forgotten.

The View From .. Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

Transition ...

Patrolman Matthew Francis Murray, Jr., is promoted to Sergeant.

Transfers ...

Sergeant Murray is transferred from Second Platoon to Third Platoon.

Patrolman Gordon Sims is transferred from Third Platoon to Second Platoon.

Patrolman Harry Lax is transferred from Second Platoon to Third Platoon.

Patrolman Lester Bastedo is transferred from First Platoon to Detectives.

Patrolman James Doran is transferred from Detectives to Second Platoon.

The exchange between Bastedo and Doran is a continuation of revolving one Detective Division position among deserving officers. Doran now completes his three-month tour of duty as Bastedo starts his. The transfer is routine, and is considered part of the In-Service Training Program.

Future transition ...

Competition is under way between three Sergeants for promotion into an open Lieutenantcy. Candidates are Sergeants Charles Terry, Jerry Galindo and Richard Sims. They have completed, successfully, written and oral examinations, and now await establishment of the eligibility list, from which the Chief of Police will appoint the new Lieutenant.

Closed cases ...

Alexander Novikoff, alias Ralph Norman, previously posted as a wanted man in this space, has been arrested. He is being returned to San Quentin as a parole violator. Norman was wanted in 22 jurisdictions when he was arrested in San Francisco.

Norman's method of operation was to answer a newspaper advertisement, pay for a typewriter, binoculars, or some similar article with a bad check, and then pawn or sell the article. Detective Philip La Bruzzo has closed three cases for this Department after questioning the suspect.

The chase ...

In the post-midnight hours, Patrolman Thomas Donohue of the Third Platoon, stops an auto for running an arterial stop sign. The vehicle contains three Navy sailors. Donohue asks the driver out of the car and is questioning him about ownership, when the two remaining men drive off in the suspect auto.

Donohue arrests the one man, places him in the radio car, and undertakes pursuit of the fleeing vehicle. The chase covers several miles and one hit-run accident on the part of the stolen car.

Radio communication is implemented by Donohue and he receives assistance, Donohue, Sergeant Galindo, and Patrolman Robert Stables combine to pull over the suspect vehicle in the vicinity of Bayshore and Geneva. The other two suspects are arrested, and all three are charged with auto theft.

At the scene of the ultimate arrest were other officers who had come to assist Donohue. These were policemen representing the San Francisco Police Department, the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office, and the California Highway Patrol.

Personnel glimpses ...

Captain Beecher has completed 19 years' service with the Daly City Police.

Patrolman Bastedo now has 13 years with the Department. He and wife, Janet, have three children at home. They are Linda, Alex and Diana. Melody, a married daughter, lives elsewhere.

Les worked in a lumber yard prior to becoming a Policeman. He is a former baseball player who still coaches PAL baseball teams. This officer was a World War II Marine, and saw service as a drill instructor, in the Guam and Okinawa campaigns, and in North China.

Bastedo worked a radio car section for several years on the Third Platoon, and has been with the First Platoon for about 10 years. He is about to serve a tour of duty as a Detective.

Dispatcher Charles Maschinot has completed five years as a clerk-dispatcher for the Department. Prior to this time, Maschinot served the Department as Poundmaster for three years.

Charlie is the senior dispatcher with the Department. As such he is assigned to the Records Division. Functionally, however, he performs for the Second Platoon, Patrol Division.

Maschinot was a member of the regular Navy when World War II commenced. He served the entire war aboard a Pacific Fleet cruiser, and was present at a number of campaigns ranging from Attu-Kiska to Iwo Jima.

He lives at home with wife, Betty. Their family includes Charleen, Maureen, Sandeen, Doreen, William, Lola and Robyn.

Patrolman John Kolbmann has completed one year with the Department. John and wife, Judy, are the parents of Loretta Ann, who is six months old.

Kolbmann has been a business administration major at the University of Pennsylvania. He has been a member of the Regular Army.

This officer has graduated from the San Mateo County Recruit School, and has worked and trained as a radio car patrolman on all watches. He is presently assigned to the Second Platoon.

Notice ...

It is erroneously believed by some that a recently-imported type of amusement device is not, technically, a pinball machine, and as a result that minors can legally operate the device.

Let's get it right. If the thing accepts coins, lights up, and shoots metal balls, it is a pinball machine. Minors are forbidden by City Ordinance 242 as amended by City Ordinance 400 to use such mechanical devices.

These ordinances will be enforced. Merchants with pinball machines must post signs stating that minors are not allowed to play same.

Anyone violating these ordinances will be prosecuted.

From A Feminine Viewpoint ...

By Mona Baker

Billowy white sails on a sky-blue lake. Right in the heart of our area, within a few minutes' drive, is beautiful Lake Merced which every weekend, and during the week, too, is covered with graceful white sails. With youngsters participating, the sport has become quite a family hobby, and weekends finds many local families out for a sail.

One of the local women's organizations who are quite active in the sport is the Ladies' Auxiliary of Lake Merced Sailing Club. They plan social activities for the Sailing Club and assist in conducting the opening day regatta held in the spring.

This Wednesday they are holding an open house at the Westlake home of their president, Jeanne Sorenson, to welcome new and prospective members to their group. Wives and mothers of sailing club members are eligible for membership in the auxiliary.

Other officers of the group include: Jean Law, vice-president; Blanche Horn, treasurer, and Connie Spanier, secretary.

Just back from a trip by Greyhound bus accompanying 15 Girl Scouts to the Seattle World's Fair is our nominee for our community leader this week. Certainly, such a brave undertaking makes our selection this week worthy of recognition.

However, this is only a small part of the many contributions she has made to the community as a local resident for the past 14 years.

She was a charter member of the Village Nursery School and worked diligently in their many fund-raising projects. Practically every year she has held an office in PTA, serving as room mother, hospitality chairman, treasurer, recording secretary, and last year was vice-president of Benjamin Franklin PTA. She has worked on every community fund drive, worked in the Girl Scout program for seven years, including serving as director of day camp, planning activities for over 100 girls for a week.

Besides all her volunteer activities, she works in the sportswear department at H. Liebes. We salute Molly Phillips as our leader this week for outstanding community service. Molly and husband, Larry, live at 503 MacArthur, and they have two daughters, Patsy and Cindy.

VACATIONS ABROAD: Not only vacations in the United States but abroad have been on the summer schedules of localites. Just back from a fascinating world's tour is Mrs. Berthe Hunt, who flew to Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong, Borneo, Southeast Asia, Burma, India, Pakistan, the Middle East, Holy Land, Baltic States, Vienna and Paris. She leaves again in a couple of weeks for a tour of the British Isles.

Just back, too, is George Barkley, owner of the Portal Travel Service, who headed a tour group of 86 Lions Club members and families to the recent Lions Club International Convention, held in Nice. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giufre and son Ronald of Daly City, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferrera and daughter Linda of San Bruno. Mr. Ferrera is president of the Geneva Lions Club.

Also traveling with the group part of the time were the Ray Logans and daughter Judy of Westlake. Judy's fiancé, Berry Moffatt, joined them in Madrid. Kay was most enthusiastic about their trip and said she is now receiving letters from all over the world from the many new friends they met on the tour.

Now a house guest at the Logan home is exchange student, Dady Mama, whose father is president of the Lions Club in Pakistan.

FASHION NOTE: New members of the "Big E's Hi Board" for high school fashion shows include local girls Lynn Jones, Westmor; Sheila Waite, Jefferson; Darlene Lim, South City; Yvonne Luckey, El Camino, and Barbara Maney, Mercy. The girls were chosen for their top grades, outstanding extra-curricular interests and fashion flair.

NEWS BRIEFS: House guests of the Del Guymans and Robert Fernekes is the A. Grant Holman family from Salt Lake City. Formerly residents of the area, Grant is past president of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association and Helen taught at Garden Village. The Guymans and Holmans leave this weekend for a trip to the World's Fair in Seattle.

It is a Tahoe vacation for the Bill Adams family, who are staying in a cabin on the lake.

A lake vacation, too, for Helen and Del Gore, who vacationed at Clear Lake.

Just back from a trip to the Redwoods and trout fishing on the Klamath River, as well as a trip into the Trinity Alps country is the Bob Morford family, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Hamilton. Now visiting at their home is brother, Austin, and two grandchildren, Mark and Debbie.

The grand tour of New York City was the vacation for the Jackie and William Schuler and two children, Gail and Bill.

A trip up the Oregon coast to the World's Fair and a visit with their brother, Dr. Michael Irvine, in Tacoma, was the vacation for the Ted Weibels. Prior to departing for the northwest they attended a Philosophy institute, sponsored by the University of the Pacific.

SOCIAL EVENTS: It was a 50th anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bender, parents of Juanita and Ed Hanley of Skyline drive. A reception was held at the Coronation Room on 18th avenue. Mr. Bender is a past foreman of the San Francisco Grand Jury.

One of the highlights of the social calendar of Skyline Assembly of Rainbow Girls will be a reception for grand officer Janet Witosky, at the Masonic Temple in Daly City on August 18. In attendance will be grand officers from all over the state.

It has been a busy summer for the local girls of Skyline Assembly. They have visited Rainbow Assemblies during the past month at Stockton, Guerneville and Sonoma.

August 12, congregation chairman Grayson Kuehnert has announced.

The installation message will be preached by Pastor Polster's brother, the Reverend Theodore W. Polster, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Pacifica. The Reverend Frank H. Jacobsen, Zion Lutheran Church in San Francisco, will perform the installation, with the assistance of other pastors from the San Francisco area.

Pastor Polster has served as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Albuquerque, New Mexico, from March, 1960, until the end of July. Prior to that time, he served as pastor of Christ Lutheran Church in Meridian, Mississippi—his first assignment after graduating from the seminary in 1956. Before entering the ministry, he practiced law in St. Louis, Missouri.

While in Mississippi, Pastor Polster was a member of the board of directors of the Southern District, Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and served as chairman of the District's Parish Education Committee.

Pastor Polster was born in Clearwater, Nebraska. He is the son of the late Reverend Philip Polster.

Pastor and Mrs. Polster and their three children will reside at the parsonage at 839 Larchmont drive, Broadmoor Village.

By GARRY NIVER

It looks like summer may be overlooked in the North County this year. The gray, enveloping fog of the Pacific Ocean swirls through the Gate and over the beaches into Daly City, Pacifica and South San Francisco, blocking out any semblance of summer.

Our first indication of summer leaving us was the Green Bay Packer-College All Star grid game on television last Friday. Somehow, we always seem to equate football with overcast skies and cool October and November evenings. When the San Francisco 49ers start shoving the Giants off the sports pages, as is happening now, it is a sign that summer has almost left us.

The weatherman, who has come under some heavy criticism of late, is a little perplexed about the situation and would like to see the symbols of summer linger a little while longer, at least until he can conjure up some decent weather. A continuance of the 49ers grabbing the headlines could result in a meeting something like this:

"Say, Harry (Harry is a publicist for the 49ers), I was wondering if you could lay off the press releases for about a month," says Wally Weatherman. "The people see all of the ink on football and begin thinking that summer is finished," he adds.

"I would sure like to accommodate you, Wally, but you know how it is—we still have a few season ducats left which we might be able to peddle before the August back-to-school sales," Harry answers.

Wally fidgets a little in his chair and tears well in his eyes. "Just give me two weeks. Let the Giants stay in the limelight for just two more weeks and I will see if I can scare up some summer weather for Bay area fans," Wally pleads.

"I believe you shot your best, Wally. Besides the Giants are losers. If they stay in the limelight too long while they are blowing the pennant, people will get the impression that San Francisco sports are in for another losing year. And being as we haven't played any games yet, we would like to fool the fans at least until the season opens," says Harry.

"Anyway, at that one game where we had rain last year, Wally, the front office is still a little peeved at you for that," Harry adds.

"If you give me a break, I'll make amends. I'll give you perfect football weather for every home game," Wally says in desperation.

"I would like to help, Wally, but you know the other problems we have. These days you have to offer the top rookies more than just money. They want at least one picture a week in the dailies, plus several inches of print daily. They are very temperamental lads and might pack up and leave camp unless they get some sterling press clippings to collect," Harry explains.

"The vets also need the ink. You know how they need to be told they're in good shape and their jobs secure for another year. Unless they read about themselves, they saunter around camp in fits of depression. You can see the psychological and commercial implications we have to deal with," vociferates Harry.

Wally, rather dejected, bids adieu to Harry and shuffles out of the office.

As he hits the outside air, he is taken aback by the piercing rays of sunlight. A vibrant smile crosses Wally's face and he skips happily up the street.

Baseball, anyone?

ON THE SIDELINES . . . Former South SF and San Jose State College grid star Doug McChesney has commenced practice with the U.S. Army team in Germany. The giddy halfback is expected to be one of their bright points this year.

Former South SF High star Howie Goss was in town with the Pittsburgh Pirates over the weekend. The ex-Warrior, who has turned Giant Killer, was extolling the prowess of the Giants' Stu Miller to the boys at the Big O's.

It seems like Miller's favorite pastime when meeting Goss is striking him out.

Barry Pottoff, a local youth who jumped the Daly City Drugs Pony League team to play for Les Vogel Chevrolet, is doing all right. The youth is currently batting .400 for the Vogel nine.

Another lad, Paul Clayton, who also left the Drug team for supposedly greener pastures, was not quite so lucky. He was cut by the Vogel outfit and he is too late to sign up for a local team.

Robust Ed Tomasello, of the Daly City Recreation Department, reports that George Pedroni's PAL Tigers have issued a challenge to George Benson's Daly City Drugs team, leaders in the stronger Pony division. The latter accepted and the game is set for Thursday night.

Don Smith and Jim McClellan of Champion Speed Ship in South SF report that their dragster, the Champion Speed Shop Special, will vie for the nation's top dragster spot later this year in Texas.

They issued the challenge Monday after their auto, driven by Sammy Hale, captured the No. 2 spot in San Gabriel last Saturday night. Don Garlits, Tampa, Florida, holder of the No. 1 spot, has accepted the challenge.

Big Dave Williams, Westmoor's freshman chucker, and his battery mate, Mike Krnich, have been chosen to perform against the Hawaiian All-Stars in SF this week. The boys will be competing under the banners of the SF PAL All-Stars.

Hardluck boxing promoter Lou Thomas suffered another setback last week when last Monday night's main-eventer, Maurice Harper, was jailed on suspicion of armed robbery.

Back in 1954, Harper was the world's No. 2 ranked welterweight. The bout would have given the old Kezar Pavilion some class. As a result, Thomas had to cancel out Monday's show.

Horse racing on the fair circuit has never been better. The directors are attracting better horses with larger purses and the result has been a tremendous pick-up at the pari-mutuel windows. Last Saturday at Bay Meadows a crowd of over 10,000 poured almost $700,000 through the cages.

Penny Carnival Highlights Rec Week

Last Friday, the Daly City recreational department ended its tremendous four cycle special events schedule. The fourth and final groups attended the loud and colorful Penny Carnival, the Golden Gate Bridge hike, the playful Pirate Day at the beach, and the recreational swim.

One hundred and thirty-five children from Olympia, Vista Mar and Westlake schools and Westlake Park and Garden Village area participated in the last 1962 summer Penny Carnival. The carnival was held on the grounds of the Garden Village School. A light mist fell over the festivities periodically during the day but this did not dampen the spirit and fun as the children played and swam within the bounds of good sportsmanship.

The children living around the War Memorial Center and Lincoln Park were the last imaginary pirates to take command of Montara Beach. Playing and searching for treasure filled the day with exercise and pleasure. As always, the youngsters returned home with many of nature's seashore treasures with which to decorate their rooms as a reminder that they were a "pirate for a day."

The Westmoor High School area hiked the Golden Gate Bridge amidst rain, wind and fog. Braving the elements, 65 children and their recreation leaders stormed across the bridge oblivious of the weather. The ends and upper portions of the bridge were hidden in fog.

Also completing its final cycle, 102 boys and girls from Marchbanks Park to Pauline M. Brown School splashed and played in the Jefferson High School pool for the last scheduled recreational swim of the summer.

But to coin an old phrase, "don't go away, you haven't seen anything yet." Tomorrow, the Daly City recreation department will begin a new Special Event schedule. This will include a wienner roast and hike at Junipero Serra Park and a trip to Fleischacker's zoo.

Northridge Park

For the past two weeks, everyone at Northridge has been busy organizing and practicing for softball teams. While batting of balls is prohibited at Northridge, the boys practice throwing and catching there and travel to Westmoor field for batting practice.

The Juniors have played two games, both times against Vista Mar. The first game found them victorious by a score of 8-0 as Gary Solari led the team with three hits while Bruce Bushner had four RBI's. Also hitting for the Juniors were Jim Feldman, whose one hit was a home run; Ron Feibusch; Guy Segal, Andy Benner, Eddie Jestead, Max Bushner and Rick and Steve Angell. Finally, the other members of the team who assured the victory with their fine fielding—Jimmy McGill, Bobby Rivera, George Petru, Mike Hanford, Stanley Hoffman and Randy Bushner.

The team is coached by Val Sabuco, who pitched the second game and lost a 5-4 heartbreaker despite three hits by centerfielder Bill Adams.

Westlake Park
A baseball game was played at Westlake Park. The Wilshire Wildcats hosted the visiting Allison Street Rams in a return game, winning 9-7. Mark Robinowitch and Mike Pollak of the "Cats" led the victor's efforts.

Frankfort Park
Croquet is still going strong and Joe Valencia is still tops in the game. Showing good form and big improvement are Norman Brown, Gary Maestas and Laura Figone.

On July 1, during a friendly softball game, Joe Valencia hit four homers the first four times at bat for a losing cause. For the first three innings, the Dodgers were ahead, 8-4. Two innings later, the Giants took an 11-9 lead and went on to win, 24-21.

Westmoor High School
Ping pong, basketball and softball continue to dominate the largest number of participants during the day at West-moor. Many girls excel at ping pong, including Lavren Fratto, Cheryl Cobb, Denise Dennings, Andreas Harvey and Gail De Marco. Among the boys often seen at the ping pong tables are Tom Lee, Dan Carroll, Dan Cuitanich, "Hoot" Bigson and Mike Hannigan.

The Westmoor softball team hadn't had much success but the spirit remains good. Providing heavy hitting for the club are Dave Milton, Jerry Donovan, Mike Elston and Tom Porter.

Future basketball stars might well include Matt and Marc De Bernardi, Kenny Smith and B. Langsam.

Vista Mar
Last Wednesday, Vista Mar had a ping pong tournament. Mike Gulbeck took first in the senior group (16-13), Bill Campbell, second; Laura Fratto took first for the girls in the senior group, and Peggy Benson took second. Glenn Phillips took first in the junior group (12-9), and Aldo Teso took second. Margaret Sturdevant took first place in the girls junior group, and Tina Caggiano took second. These winners will play the Westmoor champs sometime next week.

On Friday, August 3, Vista Mar's senior softball team played its first league game, against Northridge. The Vista Mar boys, however, put up a strong fight and by the sixth inning, Northridge's pitcher, Ken Saleri, gave up seven runs. Vista Mar fought back with 13 more runs with back-to-back doubles by Fred Sprinz and David Dotur and a towering home run by Larry Homer. Two runs in the bottom of the eighth inning gave Northridge the edge.

SSF Merchant Loops Close

The South San Francisco Merchants sponsored 13-and-Under and Pony League baseball drew to a successful close Saturday as more than 300 people turned out at Orange Park to watch final play-offs and trophy presentations.

Commencing at 10 a. m. with the pitching of the first ball by Mayor Leo Ryan, the fans were rewarded with a trio of fine games. The 13-and-Under Eastern Division champs, the PAL Captains shut-out the second place 12 Mile House, 4-0 in the opener.

In the second tilt, the Pony League All Stars edged champion Clearlite Trophy, 3-1, and 13-and-Under Western Division champion, Winston Drugs, were held to a 12-12 draw by second place Kiwanis.

Wes Robinson, PAL Captain, flied, and 12 Mile House's Bob Pallari locked horns in a pitchers' battle in the opening contest.

Robinson struck out seven and held the Twelve Milers to three hits, while Pallari fanned nine and was touched for eight hits.

The Pony League All Stars received fine pitching from Steve Sanguinetti, Arnie Andreacchi and Allan Paganucci to edge Clearlite Trophy, 3-1.

The All Stars jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first frame and added their final tallies in the fourth. Clearlite scored once in the third. Craig Styles gave up all three All Star runs and was touched for eight hits, while Clearlite managed five hits off the All Star hurlers.

In the afternoon's final contest, the Drugists erupted for seven runs in the third inning to take a 8-17 lead, and added four more in the fourth to run their total to 12.

Kiwanis made a last ditch effort in the fifth inning, scoring four, but it wasn't enough to count at 12-12.

Final league action in the Western Division saw Winston Drug win the title over the PAL Chiefs, while Kiwanis took a second place tie by downing the PAL Sergeants, 11-10.

Other action saw the Winston Dukes lose a 5-4 squeaker to St. Veronica's and the PAL Sergeants walloped Bayview.

SEVERAL of the St. Francis specialties on the gymnastic playground in the city recreation program.

War Memorial, Daniel Webster Each Offers Distinct Program

(This is the fifth in a series of articles on the recreation facilities offered by the City of Daly City.)

The basketball resonated sharply through the gym. Under one of the buckets a six-man game of "hunch" was in progress. In the center of der the watchful eye of director John Williams.

The building opens its doors at 11 a. m. and is a hive of continuous activity until 5 p. m. The basketball part of the program resumes at 7 p. m., under the direction of George Grant, and continues until 10 p. m. The night program is made up of a three-man basketball league for the older youths and adults of Daly City. Locked doors allow the gym to rest its weary hardwoods on weekends.

Williams, who is a track star at San Francisco State, also oversees ping pong, volleyball, shuffleboard, coloring and what he describes as "quiet games," during the day time.

He says that another 100 to 200 people in special groups use the coral room for meetings each week.

In the new St. Francis Heights section of Daly City, another recreation center is offering youths an entirely different program.

The Daniel Webster playground, located at the intersection of El Dorado and Locese court, specializes in the outdoor type of recreation. Touch football games, kickball, softball and gymnastics keep the youths of the neighborhood occupied most of the week.

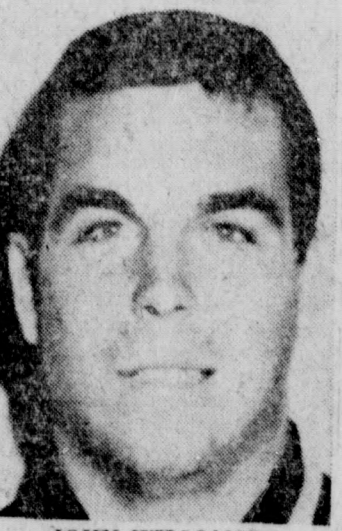

The playground also contains monkey bars, rings, chin-ups, slides and swings for more energetic youngsters. The playground is open from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. weekdays, and from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. on Saturdays.

Director of the playground is John Forcina, a student at College of San Mateo, and a Westmoor High School graduate.

Forcina's playground, which is considered one of the most popular in Daly City in relation to its size, also lists an array of special activities. On Tuesdays, from 4 to 5 p. m., Dave Ashworth teaches tumbling at the area.

Once each week, the boys engage in wrestling and archery. On Tuesdays, from 1 to 3 p. m.,

M&S Builders Top Officers

Bruce Brian pitched six innings of perfect baseball Friday night before giving up a walk as he racked up the season's first no-run, no-hit game in the Tri-City Midget League as the M&S Builders downed the PAL Officers, 8-0.

Brian, displaying near perfect control, struck out 14 and made five of the remaining seven assists en route to his no-hitter. Bob Collins, with four hits, and Ron Albert with a double, provided the hitting support for Brian.

Sun Valley Dairy downed the PAL Sergeants, 6-3, to remain in first place. Bob Romero hurled four innings of no-hit, no-run ball for the dairymen before giving way to Steve Murphy.

Tonight at 6 o'clock, Sun Valley Dairy plays host to Mis-racks Sporting Goods at Daly

City. Idled by the fog in last week's outing against Parkview of San Bruno, the game will be played at Buri Buri Park. A win will clinch a title for the title for Sun Valley.

Other Midget action saw the PAL Detectives blast the San Bruno Merchants, 13-5, and the Winston Seals take a 15-5 win over the Sunshine Gardens Improvement Club.

Watso Paces Firehouse To Win Over Billiards

Rich Watso, pitcher for Ye Old Firehouse, sent the Daly City Billiards team back to the pool tables to see what a ball looked like. Watso only let them see the ball three times in the whole game as he collected a 3-0 shut-out.

Dave Ashworth doubled in what proved to be the winning run in the third inning. An error in left field with two out allowed the other two Firehouse runs to score. Neves and Felts each collected triples for the Billiards. Frank Brandes and Dave Ashworth each hit two for two for the Firemen.

Stumble Inn dropped the league lead via the forfeit route. Failure to have nine men on the field by the Inn men gave Daly City Drugs a 9-0 win in the books.

John Martin was hero of the game for St. Clair Liquors. Martin came up with a one-hit performance against Skyline Cleaners. The Cleaners scored one run to take the lead early in the game. Bob Rodrigo stepped up and slammed a triple to score the tying run. He then took advantage of Rich Burt's single to score the winning run. Bob Mansfield's defensive play sparked the bottle boys in a tightly played ball game that St. Clair's Liquors won, 2-1.

Rex Green Plumbing put the monkey wrench in Lee's Pharmacy team, 13-9. The Plumbers took 13 hits off Ted Marzalec, Lee's pitcher. Randy Rothman gave up five hits to the Pharmacy boys that accounted for the nine runs. Errors hurt the Pharmacy nine.

Tony Marchado and John Taggart each collected three hits for the Plumbers. Ralph Valdez, Randy Rothman, Bob Turner and Greg Rodgers all hit .500 for Rex Green.

Lower Deer Kill Predicted For S. Mateo County

The department of fish and game expects the 1962 buck kill to be as good or better than that of last year in the counties of Mendocino, Lake, Sonoma and Marin, but probably below that of last year in the counties of Napa, Contra Costa, Alameda, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo.

Game managers and wardens report deer populations north of the Bay area are continuing at a high level, with feed and water conditions generally improved over those of the past two years.

South of the Bay area, poor fawn survival and deer poofing resulting from water shortages during the past two years are expected to hold down the overall buck kill.

In the Class B division, Mrs. Henry Cayla toured the fairways in 80 to win the top honors. Mrs. Charles Callendar was three strokes behind with an 83.

Mrs. D. A. Frank's 92 was good enough for first spot in the Class C division. Tied for second, one stroke back, were Mrs. E. Doran and Mrs. John Williams with 93's.

This Thursday, August 9, the Cypress Hills women will hold a ladies' guest day. It will feature medal play and low putts contests.

PAL Tigers Top Pacific Coast Loop

George Pedroni's PAL Tigers remained on top of the Pacific Coast division this week. They took the PAL Dodgers in stride, 6-2. Jim Davis gave the Dodgers three hits while he whiffed nine. Davis also scored two runs and had two RBIs. The Davis family may have another major leaguer coming up. Dave Romero and Joe Franks gave the scoring punch to the Tigers in the sixth innings by starting a four-run rally as pinch hitters.

Ric Fiyone took a one-hitter from the Flying A team. This gave his PAL Cubs a 2-1 record. Ric has given up three hits in the last 14 innings he has pitched. I Jones, Cubs' first baseman, hit two for two. Teammate John Grey tagged two for three in the 6-2 win.

Coach of the week honors go to Ben Parodi of OLPH. Parodi entered the league at the last minute. He scrouged up a team figuring he would let the boys play for the experience.

This week his team won their second straight game from a good club. It was a close game but at the end OLPH won, 6-5, over the Skyline Plaza Merchants.

Mike Chelone and John Carroll figured very prominently in the game, giving up only two hits to the Merchants. Carroll led the stickmen with two for three and two runs scored.

OLPH had a big three-run fifth inning that won the game. Herb Decker, relief pitcher for the Plaza nine, drew the praise of Coach Parodi.

Misracks, Constables Move Toward Title

Misracks and the PAL Constables took another step toward the championship this week by matching wins. The two clubs are tied for the loop lead with 3 and 0 records.

Misracks played a close one with BYA George Harrison Realty. The Harrison boys hit well, collecting nine hits against six for Misracks. Defensive play by Misracks told the story. Misracks' men turned the six hits into six runs while the Realtors could only tally four. Garber, Bjorkquist and Ross all hit two for three for the Harrison team. Larry Collins was the winning pitcher for Misracks.

The Constables won in a more spectacular style. Parkmerced's Bill Frahm's fine pitching record suffered heavy abuse from the bats of the Constables. Lusty, Sobek, Feretti, Boudreau and Murphy combined to take nine hits off Frahm in the 11-4 win. Dan Feretti won his third straight game as pitcher for the Constables. In addition, he added a grand slam home run and a double to the victory. Bill Frahm and Ron Levy hit doubles for Parkmerced.

Relish Bakery's Vic Yerby looked great this week as he fanned 13 batters, walked only one and allowed three hits in his team's win over the Bender Roofers, 8-0. Ron Storbo had a tremendous day at the plate, three for three. Bruce Hudgens helped out with two for three. Bob Nolan, Mike Dawdle, Dick Berry and Matty Russo of the PAL Redsox gave Russ Runge of the PAL Indians his first real bump of the season. Runge, who has pitched well all year, had the roof cave in on him as the Redsox won, 17-2. Broadbent collected two of the Tribe's four hits.

Midway Mile Gridders Need New Players

Bob Wyman, Daly City coach of the Midway Miles, San Francisco Pop Warner football team, has issued a plea for personnel in the Daly City-San Francisco area.

The youths must be between the ages of 13 and 15 and not exceed 130 pounds at weigh-in. Practice is held every afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in Crocker-Armstrong Park, Geneva and Moscow streets, San Francisco.

Interested youths, especially from Daly City, may sign up at the practice sessions.

James Madison, five feet, four inches tall, was the nation's shortest president.

Daly City Youth Participates In UC Summer Research Project

A young Daly City resident is one of 70 high school students attending a summer research participation program on the Berkeley campus of the University of California.

David Q. Fletcher, 66 Fairview, Daly City, was selected from applicants throughout the state for an opportunity to take part in advanced scientific research under the supervision of top U. C. faculty members. He is part of a research team now investigating variations in the earth's magnetic field under the guidance of Stanley H. Ward,

Professor of Mineral Exploration at the Berkeley campus.

The variations, Dr. Ward believes, are caused by fluctuations in the "solar winds." These are streams of ionized particles emitted by the sun. Their effect upon the earth's magnetic field can be detected by very sensitive instruments.

David's part in the research project includes responsibility for operating the recording instruments at various locations in the state, and also for preparing the recorded data for processing by high-speed computers at Berkeley.

The summer research program, administered by University Extension, is made possible by a grant from the National Science Foundation. The overall purpose of the program is to give promising high school science students the opportunity to experience advanced research methods and to strengthen their desire to seek careers in science.

David, who will enter the senior class at Lick-Wilmerding High School this fall, is to continue his studies at Berkeley through August 24.

DAVID Q. FLETCHER (right), 66 Fairview drive, Daly City, serve as research participant in record of fluctuations in earth magnetism. Graph record is being prepared for processing in electronic equipment.

Matadors Down Holy Angels Colts 2-0

In the battle for first place, the BYA Matadors' Craig Rosen collected a 2-0, 2-hit shut-out against the Holy Angels Colts. Colts' chucker Tim Dillon performed well for his team, giving up only six hits. Gary Schmidt and Butch Peterson both tackled RBIs onto their share of the hits for the Matadors. Rosen fanned 11 Colt batters and gave up no walks.

Gerry Garibaldi of the PAL Yankees ended the PAL Giants' win spree with a three-hit, 8-2 win over them. Garibaldi nailed ten via the big K. Joel Lessor gave much of the scoring punch to the Yanks with two big blows. Dave Pinelli of the Giants won the one bright spot for his club. His defensive play kept the scoring down as he constantly spoiled Yank hits.

The BYA Forresters downed the Holy Angels Lions, 6-4, with Kenny Wendt chalking up the win. Wendt allowed the Lions only four hits. The game went back and forth with the lead changing hands. Scoring in the fourth inning iced the game for the Forresters. Warcas hit two for four for BYA and scored two runs.

Entry Permits Required To Bring Game Into California

Hunters or fishermen who plan to seek their quarry outside California are reminded by the Department of Fish and Game that a declaration of entry is required if they bring their game or catch back from another state or country.

The fish or game must be legally taken, and, if taken under the authority of a sport fishing or hunting license, legally possessed outside of this state. A declaration of entry must be made at the time of entry, however declaration is not required if the fish or game is shipped in by common carrier under a bill of lading.

The easiest method is to obtain a declaration of entry form from any DFG office before taking a

There's no such thing as a successful pitching "artist" in the major leagues who's under the age of 25. But there's plenty of brilliant "throwers."

Young pitchers win because they can throw the ball fast enough to strike out the hitters. After the fastball leaves the young pitcher, he resorts to creative pitching wizardry which comes only from a man with many years of experience. This kind of pitcher is an artist.

His qualifications are: Over 25, and departed speed on his fastball.

Mike McCormick is basically a 23-year-old thrower. Yet he constantly tries to be an artist. But it's a false image. Mike doesn't possess, or need, a bag of tricks which come only with age.

There is nothing wrong with McCormick's arm, which was believed to have been the trouble at the beginning of the season.

Dizzy Dean said this during the Game of the Week telecast recently. Mike was pitching that day, and Diz said McCormick was really blowing the ball in there. I could imagine Dean would know a bad arm when he saw one. It ended his career many years too soon.

McCormick's "out" pitch is still his sizzling fastball—and the sooner he and his advisors realize it the better it will be for the Giants. For I believe McCormick can win a pennant for San Francisco.

A former big league pitcher commented to me the other day that maybe Mike is being ill-advised by Giant coach Larry Jansen, who pitched his first major league season when he was 30.

"How, then," the ex-hurler snapped, "can Jansen tell a 23-year-old pitcher how to do it in the majors?" Maybe the ex-pitcher has a gripe with Jansen. But it still doesn't change this writer's thinking.

I still believe all young winning pitchers are throwers, and the artists are twilight zone veterans. As soon as they get their wires crossed, they can execute themselves as major league pitchers.

BETWEEN GAMES: Next time you detect a Giant pitcher throwing a change-up to a right-handed hitter, take a quick look at shortstop Jose Pagan. He takes a step to his right as soon as the ball is pitched. The hitter generally pulls the ball and Pagan, more times than not, is in perfect position to make the play. Stan Musial has changed his "hustle" pattern a bit this year. The vet of two decades of magnificent baseball with the Cards is no longer running full steam to his position before and after each inning. The Man does it in a walk now. He's saving his steps for when they really count. . . . Dodger Notes: L. A. manager Walt Alston told Maury Wills, his phantom base stealer, after he hit a homer against St. Louis recently: "Don't let it go to your head — I just want you to get on base. . . ." LA's great hitter, Tommy Davis, told Dodger sportscaster the obvious in a post-game interview. He remarked, "Every time I swing a bat, in or out of a game, the ball seems to find a hole. . . ." Now that Brooklyn fans no longer have a major league team, Pittsburgh is my nomination for having the most rabid baseball fans. Every game played at Forbes Field this year has sounded like the seventh game of the World Series.

Nations Second-Ranked Dragster At Half Moon

The newly-crowned Number Two Mr. Eliminator, the Championship Speed Shop Special of South San Francisco, will make its first appearance after winning the title, this Saturday night, August 11, at the Half Moon Bay drag strip.

The Chevrolet-powered dragster, with Sammy Hale driving, won the national spot last Saturday night in San Gabriel by defeating the Pinks and Anson super-charged Chrysler Special from Los Angeles. Hale set a new elapsed time for Chevrolet dragsters of 8.28 seconds in registering his two straight triumphs in the best two-out-of-three race.

Also on the schedule for Saturday night to give the Special some stiff competition will be the Gateway Special dragster from Daly City, the Julian Brothers' dragster from San Mateo, the Speed Incorporated dragster from San Jose and the Julian and Maniago dragster from South San Francisco.

The gates open at 2 p. m. with eliminations slated to start at 7:30 p. m. The Half Moon Bay drag strip is located 26 miles south of San Francisco on Coast Highway 1. The strip is equipped with grandstands and offers plenty of free parking.

It's News To Vets

Q.—Has Congress passed the bill for World War I veterans' pensions?

A.—Bills providing pensions for World War I veterans have been introduced in the current session of Congress but none as yet have been acted upon by either the House or the Senate. Of course, there is an over-all pension law that is administered by the VA.

Q.—Does the VA provide homes for veterans who for one reason or another are penniless or incapable of earning a living?

A.—There are domiciliaries for that purpose and entrance requirements are similar to entry into VA hospitals. Contact your VA Regional Office.

Q.—Where are the Veterans Affairs Offices of the State Department located?

A.—To facilitate serving VA beneficiaries in certain foreign areas having unusually large concentrations of veterans and their beneficiaries, Veterans Affairs Offices are maintained at the American Embassies in London, Paris, Rome, and Mexico City and the American Consulate General in Frankfurt, Germany.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

The Woolworth team closed with a rush to win the championship in the Evening Stars League which closed the past week. The girls wasted no time making plans for a winter league as they held a meeting Monday night to consider the possibility of dividing the group into a scratch league and a handicap league. Elva Vlass was the leading lady in the final night of bowling with a 221 game and 536 series.

Bob McNeilly increased his summer average a few pins in the 805 Scratch League when he posted a 206 game and 570 series.

Angelo Baldelli and Maxine Chaika were the high rollers in the Sunday Night No-Tap as Angelo took home the $11 first prize for the men's division and Maxine led the ladies with 727 to win the $9 prize. Other prize winners were Gene Tarczy, Dick Chaika and Larry Pedone in the men's group while Shirley Russell, Karen McGill and Norma Baldelli were among the ladies who took cash prizes. Mystery prizes went to June Tarczy and Ed Stephen.

As the Northern California Mixed Four championships came to an end, the Westlake Giants No. 1 team held unofficial possession of first place. Led by Tom Franz's 634 series, the team of Jean Perada, Dottie Tener and Rich Clatt posted a 2552 handicap total to lead the 200 teams competing. The Blue Monday Scratch was far from blue for Rich Ryden and George Weisendunk. Rich had a big 235 game and 586 series, while George, who has been shooting up a storm lately, had a 201 game and 588 series.

Two Westlake bowlers are temporarily confined to local hospitals and their many friends wish a speedy recovery to Don Williams and Huck Huckaby.

Cy Gibbs and Fran Olivera led the way in the High Rollers Handicap with 195 and 540 and 175 and 499, respectively.

Today is "Ladies' Day" as finals of the Miss 300 Contest will be held at Union Square to select the theme girl for the Aid to Retarded Children tournament, which starts August 9 and runs until September 16.

Alice Schultze and Bonnie Birkett were only 14 pins apart in the Monday afternoon Ladies Swiss Singles as Alice took first prize with Bonnie taking the second place cash award.

Since so many local bowlers have been successful in winning tournament prizes, Primo has reserved spots in the following bowls for Westlakers wishing to compete in tournament play:

Capital Bowl, Sacramento, July 28; Uptown Bowl, Richmond, July 29; San Carlos Bowl, August 4; Mid-State Bowl, Fresno, August 11-12; Tokay Bowl, Lodi, August 18-19; Midway Bowl, San Leandro, August 25, and Valley Center Bowl, Salinas, August 26.

Gari Snyder was the leading lady in the Friday afternoon No-Tap as she walked off with the $10 first prize for a 711 series. Second place went to Gloria Zukor while Anita Del Campo won $5 for third prize. Dody Sanguinetti took $4.50 for her high game of 242.

Chief of Police Petrocchi took first place in the special PAL Booster Night squad with Glenn Butcher in second place. In the ladies' division, Doris Heiser led the way with Marilyn Standt second, Bob Sherwood won the blind-bogey division for those bowlers without averages.

Through the courtesy of the Westlake Bakery, a cake will be awarded to the leading man and lady each day for the remainder of the tournament.

Ralph D. Chaney Finishes Boot Camp

Ralph D. Chaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Chaney of 6348 Mission street, Daly City, was scheduled to complete recruit training August 3 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, California.

The nine-week basic training will be highlighted by a recruit brigade review, where some 3,000 bluejackets will pass in review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Playground tournament winners not formerly announced are: Ping pong (boys, 8-10)—Charles Freiberg; (girls, 9-11) Lynn Noll, who also won the corroms contest for her age group. Sign-ups for chess and checkers are now being taken.

Garden Village is now forming plans for an open house to be held the last week of the summer recreation program, the date to be announced later. On the program are father and son relays, cake baking contest, arts and crafts work done during the summer, and a tumbling demonstration by the youngsters in the classes.

Ebbetts Pass in Alpine County was named in 1854 for John Ebbetts, who crossed the pass with a mule train in April, 1851.

South Sunset Grabs Two Wins In Far West Loop

South Sunset looks like they will be hard to overtake in the Far West race. They turned in two wins this week, first over the tough Silver Terrace team. Silver Terrace out-hit them, 5-3, but defensive play by South Sunset shut them out, 5-0.

The Sunsetters took a heart-breaker from Daly City Drugs. With South Sunset leading, 6-2, in the bottom of the sixth, the side was retired. Daly City Drugs came to bat and blasted out five runs to take the lead. At that point, the game was called because of darkness. The time limit was not expended, therefore, the score reverts to the last completed inning—South Sunset won, 6-2.

Parkmerced's Billy "Fireball" Mahoney singled in two runs in the fifth inning to break up a 1-1 tie with Silver Terrace. Eddie Portney and Ricky Grasse held the Terrace boys to two hits with fine pitching. Parkmerced won, 3 to 1. Jim Hunt, Tommy Hogan, Brian Bond and John Hutchinson all blasted the ball for hits.

Daly City Drugs took one from Art Colvin BYA, 11-3. Art Colvin is in the midst of vacation troubles and was lucky to have enough men to play the game. George Egan was the winning pitcher, allowing BYA only five hits. Stefani was the losing pitcher for BYA. Mike Kernich, George Vroman, M. Passarella, George Egan, Terry Peccardo, Bill Shelver and Ken Smith contributed blows at the plate for the Drugs.

Japanese Wives Get Along In Adopted Community

Most of the Japanese wives of American men living in the Bay area feel that they are getting along well in their adopted community, according to a recently completed study by Miss Chizuko Tsutsumi under auspices of International Institute, a United Crusade agency offering services to the foreign-born.

Miss Tsutsumi's study was financed by the Rosenberg Foundation. It was made for the purpose of finding out how these intercultural marriages are working out and what kinds of services these families may need to help in their adjustment to the community.

More than 100 wives were interviewed at length about their background and attitudes and their experience in their American community. These women are believed to be typical of 3,000 to 4,000 Japan-born wives in intercultural marriages in the Bay area.

Miss Tsutsumi finds that 71 per cent of the wives feel that their adjustment to the community is good. Twenty-four per cent feel that it is unfavorable, and five per cent have no comment. The marriages of the women who grew up under the old style Japanese family appear to be more stable than those of the younger women.

The divorce rate in the Japanese-American intercultural marriages is somewhat less than in the community as a whole. Most of the divorced wives have chosen to remain in the United States rather than to return to Japan. The most commonly felt unmet need is for emotional security and understanding from their husbands, Miss Tsutsumi says. Part of this may be a language problem which makes it difficult for the women to communicate their innermost feelings even though they may be able to converse easily about household matters. In some cases International Institute's confidential case workers have been able to help these husbands and wives to better understand each other's problems and attitudes.

The children of these intercultural marriages get along well in the community and do better than average in school, Miss Tsutsumi finds.

Miss Tsutsumi herself acquired a husband as a result of her research project. An article she wrote for Fujin Koron, leading Japanese women's magazine, came across the desk of Tamotsu Takase, curator of the East Asian Collection at Hoover Institution at Stanford University, where he also is engaged in research on contemporary China.

He arranged for a mutual friend to introduce him to Miss Tsutsumi. They were married seven months later. They expect to return to Japan when she has completed her work for a master's degree in social work at the University of California and he receives his Ph.D. in modern Chinese literature at Stanford.

The city of Eureka in Humboldt County, so named in 1850, is believed to be the oldest place in the United States bearing that name.
